

Scoil Éanna Admission Policy

1. Introduction

This Admission Policy complies with the requirements of the Education Act 1998, the Education (Admission to Schools) Act 2018 and the Equal Status Act 2000. In drafting this policy, the Board of Management of the school has consulted with school staff, the school patron and with parents of children attending the school.

The policy, with the new amendment Section 3, was approved by the school patron on 30/11/2022. It is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy, on request, to any person who requests it.

The relevant dates and timelines for the Scoil Éanna admission process are set out in the school's Annual Admission Notice which is published annually on the school's website at least one week before the commencement of the admission process for the school year concerned.

Notices will also be placed in the Parish Newsletter, the Northern Standard, at the entrance to the local preschool and at the school entrance to notify parents that the school is accepting enrolment applications for the coming year. The enrolment process is by written application only. Completed application forms should be returned by February 28th each year. All applications must be fully completed for consideration.

This policy must be read in conjunction with the Annual Admission Notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy to any person who requests it.

The address at which the applicant resides will be the only address used by the school for correspondence regarding enrolment.

The completion of an enrolment application form or the placement of your child's name on a list, however early, does not confer an automatic right to a place in the school.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

Scoil Éanna is a Catholic, co-educational school which operates under the Patronage of the Catholic Bishop of Clogher.

"Catholic Ethos" in the context of a Catholic primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Roman Catholic Church, which aims at promoting:

- (a) the full and harmonious development of all aspects of the person of the pupil, a living relationship with God and with other people; and

- (b) including the intellectual, physical, cultural, moral and spiritual aspects; and
- (c) a philosophy of life inspired by belief in God and in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus; and
- (d) the formation of the pupils in the Catholic faith;

and which provides religious education for the pupils in accordance with the doctrines, practices and traditions of the Roman Catholic Church, and/or such ethos and/or characteristic spirit as may be determined or interpreted from time to time by the Irish Episcopal Conference.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of Scoil Éanna shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school.

Scoil Éanna seeks to provide a high quality education where each child is encouraged to reach their potential. The school is committed to a spirit of inclusion, equality and harmony where each child and member of the school community is valued and treated with respect. We offer a holistic education so that each child will emerge as self-reliant and confident. We hope to achieve this through the collaborative effort of teachers, children, parents and the wider community.

Our school is of a Catholic ethos and, in keeping with that ethos, children of all or no other faith are welcome to apply to this school.

We respect the decision of parents to withdraw their child/children from taking part in the religious education curriculum, religious ceremonies, school Masses, etc.

Where the parent(s)/guardian(s) require that a student attend the school without attending religious instruction (etc.) in the school, they should make a written request to the Principal of the school. These arrangements will not result in a reduction in the school day of such students.
